

1. Create two arrays of size 5. Load one of the arrays with random numbers of your choice (follow example 2). The second array should be kept blank (follow example 3). Copy the contents of the first array into the second array in the same order. You must not use loops to accomplish this task.
[no need to print any array]
2. Define a string with lower-case characters and print them in uppercase characters.